Chamberlain Put At Crossroads In Appeasement

New Crisis Looms as Czechoslovakian Government Refuses Demands of Sudeten German Minority For Autonomy
By RICHARD McILLAN
Special Copyright Cable by British United Press to Edmonton Bulletin.

LONDON, April 26.—European peace was threatened with a new crisis Monday when the Czechoslovakian government categorically refused the demands for autonomy for the Sudeten Germans within her borders which was made in a belligerent speech Sunday by Konrad Henlein. Henlein claims he speaks for 3,500,000 Germans.

Second Major Success For Chamberlain Seen In Treaty

By HERBERT PARLEY
British United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 26.—Prime Minister Chamberlain's policy of securing the peace of Britain and other nations secured its second major success with the signing of the Anglo-Irish agreement Monday, terms of which are published today.

The agreement, closely following the Anglo-Italian friendship pact, underlines Chamberlain's intention to safeguard all British fronts, since the defence questions played important parts in the negotiations of the British and Irish statesmen.

NEED CO-OPERATION

Following the signing of the agreement, the Sunday Times commented, "Each country in its defence against the aggressor needs the other's co-operation. Their problems of naval and air strategy cannot be solved in isolation."

"The geographical mass of Britain stretching between Ireland and the continent, in the past has been represented by the smaller island as isolating it from Europe. She must now see its protective character. If Britain succumbs to

TWO-RAILWAY OPERATING UNION IS NOW URGED

TORONTO, April 26.—An "operating union" of Canada's two major railway companies is urged today by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association as essential to a solution of a problem which constitutes the "largest single constant charge upon the public purse."

President of public utility of the Canadian National line was made infeasible and a unionification for administrative and operating purposes such as it advocated, the association contended.

It held "fears of monopolistic or political abuse of power arising from such a union are not substantiated in fact."

Tuo-Ton Shark Subdued When Knife Is Used

SOUTHAMPTON, England, April 26.—A 20-foot, 200-pound shark was killed with a knife by a fisherman in Weymouth Bay. The huge two-ton shark, which has been killed with a knife, was pulled toward the beach by Frederick Park, fisherman, jumped into the water and repeatedly stabbed the shark.

The battle lasted 30 minutes and ended with the shark dead and Park exhausted.

Mid-European Control Thwarted In Daladier Plan

French Premier Puts Final Touches on Operations and Opposes Germany in Any Four-Nation Agreement

PARIS, April 26.—Premier Edouard Daladier put final touches today to his plans to thwart Germany's dream of a middle European empire. Two points are cited here as already having partly offset German annexation of Austria and presumed German support of Nazi demands for self-government for Germans in Czechoslovakia:

1.—The Anglo-Franco-British move to woo Italy, joined with Germany in the Rome-Berlin axis, is a desperate ploy.

2.—The understanding here that the British government has agreed to its plans to extend the friendship agreement with Italy into a four-power pact to include Germany.

Premier Daladier made known his opposition to any four-power pact that would include Germany. French officials said the foreign office "understands" Prime Minister Chamberlain had abandoned that part of his plan when he saw France was determined to stand by

DOG KILLER ADDS INSULT TO INJURIES

CHICAGO, April 26.—One driver went out of his way to make seven-year-old Norman Strome's misadventure worse. His automobile struck and killed Norman's dog before the boy's eye, the driver jumped out, stole the dog's harness and drove on.

He also indicated in the reward offers that he believed he was in actual contact with kidnappers up to the following offer:

Stricter Supervision Over Expenditure Of Relief Funds Provided

RELIEF BILL INTRODUCED IN COMMONS

Provinces Must Provide Required Information To Receive Loans

OTTAWA, April 26—Stricter supervision over expenditure of Dominion funds on unemployment relief and relief work is provided in the 1938 edition of the unemployment and farm relief bill introduced in the House of Commons Monday by Labor Minister Norman Rogers.

It took the house only a minute to pass the resolution preliminary to introduction of the bill when it was introduced Monday afternoon. The bill is expected to be passed in the next few days.

PASSED EACH SESSION

The bill is similar in purpose to one passed each session since 1930 and authorizes the government to grant money to provinces to assist in providing direct relief, to carry on works and undertakings aimed to provide employment and to assist in works and undertakings under the jurisdiction of provincial governments.

Indicative of a move for closer supervision over expenditures recommended by the national employment commission, the 1938 bill provides no loan or advance can be made until the province has submitted a statement of its financial position and a statement of its proposed program of relief.

Agreements with the provinces for the fiscal year, 1937-38 already included a stipulation such information be furnished.

MONEY APPROPRIATED

As in the case of previous bills, the Liberal administration came into office all expenditures made out of money appropriated by parliament for the purposes of the act. What appropriations the government will make for the fiscal year, 1938-39, will be known only when the supplementary estimates are tabled in the house.

In starting the relief discussion before Mr. Rogers said the government was contemplating a large program of national conservation and development. Details of the program will come in the estimates.

The bill is permissive in character. It will permit the government to carry on works which may be to the general advantage of Canada for the purpose of providing employment. It is made that so far as may be consistent with reasonable economy and efficiency the person employed on such works will be chosen from those receiving relief and registered for employment with the employment service.

MAY CONTRIBUTE
Then the government may make contributions to approved undertakings being carried in by provinces and make cash grants to provinces to assist in alleviating distress. The government also authorized to make loans to provinces to enable them to meet their share of expenditures on such works and relief and to consolidate and renew previous loans.

Power is also provided to enter into agreements with corporations, partnerships or individuals in industry respecting the expansion of industrial production. The bill will be considered by the house called for second reading later this week.

Toronto Has Campaign To Clear Weeds

GET-A-JOB PLAN WORKING WELL VERDUN FINDS

MONTREAL, April 26—Verdun's day-old "get-a-job" campaign, moved 52 of the nearby city's 1,000 unemployed from civic relief projects.

"If the campaign does not achieve any further results," Mayor Verduin said at last night's council meeting, "although I am confident it shall, city council will feel great of being instrumental in affording these men an opportunity of once again finding their place in the life of the community."

During the week, the mayor's office reported that the plan was working well. The city's relief projects will not be obliged to do any actual work but will receive their regular relief pay. The men have been given the week off for look for steady employment.

Special Meeting To Debate Report Of Tram Expert

City council Monday decided to call a special meeting next Thursday night to consider a report made by the expert on the proposed 10-year rehabilitation program for the street railway system.

It was reported that Mr. Wilson planned to leave the city by the 10:00 a.m. train, and that it would be advisable for council to deal with his report while he was present to speak to it.

The traffic expert made the survey in connection with a report prepared by City Commissioner Robert J. Gibb in conjunction with Street Railway Super. Thomas Ferrier, and which proposed the adoption of a $100,000 rehabilitation program for the street railway system covering a 10-year period.

A.P. Broadcast Plan Rejected By Association

NEW YORK, April 26—A plan to broadcast A.P. news through commercial newspapers on commercially sponsored radio programs was rejected Monday by the radio association membership in a vote.

Proponents argued that such a plan would enable the A.P. to make needed increases in revenue, through extra assessments on papers using news for radio purposes.

Opponents contended the plan might raise suspicion, however unfounded, that radio sponsors were influencing the news.

CITY COUNCIL REFUSES GIVE RENTAL LEASE

Looking to the day when the northwest corner of the Market Square would be beautified in connection with the proposed Civic Centre program, city council Monday night rejected an application for a lease on the property made by a new and used car firm.

TORONTO, April 26—The answer to the lack of co-ordination and uniformity of taxes imposed by various provinces lies wholly with the provinces themselves, according to a report by the Ontario commission on Dominion-provincial relations.

"No superhuman powers are called for and the solution will be reached in the exact ratio of the will of these governments to reach it," said F. D. Titchard, board general manager.

A sound solution, if properly arrived at, will enable substantial savings to both business and governments, will promote further development of national unity, will encourage and enable a business expansion of material benefit to every citizen of this country and will provide an expanded source of taxation to guarantee our future government.

Visitors To Glasgow To Get Drives

MONTREAL, April 26—Scotmen of Glasgow and district evidently intend that the base but long-lived rumor of Scottish "lightness" shall be buried forever in the grounds of the British Empire Exhibition this summer.

"Some car owners," an official stated, "have offered to take visitors for drives every Sunday afternoon during the run of the exhibition, and a number of them have intimated that they will go anywhere within a radius of 150 miles of Glasgow. Visitors will thus be able to see much of Scotland's beautiful scenery on Sundays when the exhibition will be closed."

Refuse Boost Intermediate Relief Scale

Unwilling to accept a recommendation that the intermediate relief scale given to unemployed men from outside municipalities be increased by 20 per cent, city council Monday refused this proposal back to its unemployment relief committee for further consideration.

Relief Manager H. F. McKee received allowances given outsiders who left their home municipalities and came to Edmonton for help. It was based on the scale paid by municipalities from which the unemployed came, but was not as high as the city scale.

The committee recommended the 20 per cent increase, reporting that the existing intermediate scale was not adequate.

Mr. McKee said that about 30 families came within this category and that the increase of 20 per cent would mean an extra expenditure of approximately $1,000 a year.

J. Cochran, appearing on behalf of unemployed single women and girls, urged that they be placed in rooming houses instead of Bethany Lodge, when referred to the city relief. He argued that this would be a paying rooming-house keeper.

Receiving a report that the present method of housing single women and girls was the most satisfactory in view of all circumstances, council rejected the delegate's proposal.

CITY REJECTS $10,000 OFFER FOR PROPERTY

Commissioners Are Instructed to Negotiate for Higher Price

Considering an offer of $10,000 for city-owned property located at the northwest corner of Jasper Avenue and 38 Street, and now occupied by the Sterling Furniture Limited, city council Monday night instructed commissioners to negotiate for a higher offer for the property.

The price of $10,000 was submitted by H. A. Friedman, K.C., owner of the property, but a majority of aldermen agreed with the opinion of commissioners that the offer was not high enough.

$36,000 VALUE
Assessed value of the land on which the buildings are located is $18,000, while the net value of the buildings is fixed by the city at approximately another $18,000, bringing the total assessment of the property to $36,000.

It was explained the property had been acquired through tax foreclosure, and, believing it would be good business to sell the land at a profit, the city had decided to sell it at a price of $10,000.

Commissioners reported they were reluctant to accept a price of $10,000 for the property, but were quoted would be purchasers being told $12,000 a year.

WOULD SELL
Ald. J. T. McCrath proposed that the price of $10,000 be accepted, and the property be sold back on the tax roll, Aldermen J. H. Ogilvie and Fred C. Caselman agreed with him, believing it would be good business to sell the land at a profit.

Ald. Dan K. Knott opposed the offer, stating that in his opinion the property was worth more than $10,000. He stated that the city had acquired the property for $10,000, and that it was now worth $36,000. He proposed that the city should sell the property for $36,000.

REPAIR BILL
Maintaining the city would be called upon to make extra repairs to the building in the year following its sale. Ald. McCrath argued that it would be better to buy the property at the price offered.

Mayor John W. Fry said that the city had received a $10,000 offer for the property, and that it was now worth $36,000. He proposed that the city should sell the property for $36,000.

Commissioners reported they were reluctant to accept a price of $10,000 for the property, but were quoted would be purchasers being told $12,000 a year.

THEY GOT ALL THEY WANTED: STILL LAUGHING

CHICAGO, April 26—Two men walked into Robert Moskowitz's liquor store today, smiling and laughing. Moskowitz greeted the jovial pair as customers. "What'll you have, gentlemen?" he asked. "Everything you have," replied one of the men, who were still laughing. He drew a pistol and the other took $200. Still laughing, they fled.

FIRST VOLUME WAR HISTORY NOW ISSUED

Col. A. Fortescue Duguid
Writer of Massive Tome Of Achievements

OTTAWA, April 25—First volume of Canada's official war history has now appeared, written by Col. A. Fortescue Duguid, director of the historical section of the national defence department. General distribution of the volume will be undertaken in a few weeks.

A massive tome, made up of two sections and appendices, the book runs nearly 1,000 pages. Of that, 500 consist of text and 400 of appendices, with the remainder devoted to an index now in course of compilation. There are 24 maps and 100 illustrations. The book is priced at $1.00, and appendices $0.50.

COVERS MOBILIZATION
First volume covers mobilization of the Canadian Expeditionary force from the outbreak of war, Aug. 4, 1914, to Sept. 13, 1915, when the Canadian Corps was formed.

Assessment of Canada's contribution to the war effort, the book covers the period from the outbreak of war, Aug. 4, 1914, to Sept. 13, 1915, when the Canadian Corps was formed. The book is priced at $1.00, and appendices $0.50.

DETAINED RECORD
The first volume of the detailed record of the first engagement participation of the Canadian Corps in the battle of Ypres, April 1915. Other chapters relate to the battle of Vimy, April 1915. Other chapters relate to the battle of Vimy, April 1915.

While the battles were being fought, the 1st Division arrived in the battle of Vimy, April 1915. Other chapters relate to the battle of Vimy, April 1915.

The appendices are for the most part comprised of receipts and orders, referred to in the text.

STRIKERS ARE TOLD BEWARE OF TERRORISM

Calgary Chief Of Police Warns Against Acts Of Violence

CALGARY, April 26—A warning to Calgary relief strikers that "acts of terrorism" would not be tolerated was issued late Monday by Chief of Police David Ritchie.

"I will not tolerate any terrorist acts in the city," said Chief Ritchie in a statement to the press. "Such acts as have occurred are being fully investigated. Vigorous prosecution will follow against those who are arrested."

Several non-strikers have been arrested in the last few days and one man was attacked in his home by a "phantom" squad Sunday night.

MORE PICKETS
Ranks of strike pickets increased during the day, more non-strikers were at work on civic relief projects and the heaviest concentration of police since the strike started was seen on the streets.

Under the leadership of senior sergeants, police squads varying in strength from 14 to 25 men were posted at central relief projects Monday.

Two hundred strikers were on "picket duty" and 104 non-strikers were at work on civic relief projects. Two strikers were arrested during the day, charged with assaulting a relief recipient, but were released after a hearing at the police court.

BIG PROGRAM FOR BUILDING AIRCRAFT SEEN

Aid of Canadian and United States Plants Is Planned

LONDON, April 26—Mobilization of an air force of 8,000 planes within the next two years, with the help of Canadian and United States plants, and expansion of the British industry to manufacture annual production of 4,000 planes thereafter, were today to evaluate strikes last night as essential features of a stepped-up program to be undertaken by the government.

A technical report to be given the cabinet by the air minister was expected to recommend adoption of "Plan F" calling for construction of 1,250 battle planes by 1939, in favor of a far more comprehensive plan justifying recourse to Canada and American manufacturers.

Hoping For Peace Uncle Sam Prepares For Possible Warfare

LESSON GAINED IN 1916 FIGHT ROOT FIRMLY

Army and Navy Leaders
Schooled in Every Detail Of Defence

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The United States does not expect war to be ready-made for us. This is the feeling here as the experts take stock 21 years after the nation's entrance into the Great War, April 6, 1917. Army and navy heads are all set to draw on past resources.

Not only is the U.S. navy strong and growing stronger. Not only is the comprehensive small army highly-trained and mechanized. But plans also have been laid for mobilization of America's resources—estimated here at half the world's total. They are detailed "in a general way," as one veteran of World War I explains.

Planning was the big military lesson the United States learned from the Great War. While in that conflict it was necessary to make all three plans by rule of thumb after the nation declared war. Now they are all set down in writing. Even should war come next month the levers are ready to start the mass mobilization machinery.

TIME TO MOBILIZE

"No aggression is likely to attack us," says General Malin, chief of staff. "If he knows that such an attack is likely to be crushed quickly."

"Fortunately," at the time of our entry into the World War, we had time to mobilize. It was several months before we were able to assemble and equip a force large enough to exercise a material influence on the outcome of hostilities. In a future war, we may not be so fortunate.

Even, common sense dictates that in time of peace we should consider carefully the steps necessary to mobilize quickly for defence. The very fact that we may be able to assemble and equip so rapidly a large and efficient army greatly lessens the probability of war.

TRAVERS ALL SET

Tentative allocation for production of planes, guns, steel helmets and a thousand other requirements have been made to 10,000 plants. Surveys of the productive capacity of these and thousands of other plants have been completed. Specified is the number of two-day shifts that will be needed to build castings, molds for training recruits. Sites for these camps have been chosen.

A joint army and navy committee has drafted a model selective service law and has worked out tentative regulations for conscription. Plans are drawn for coordination of railway, water and air transport. The 12,000 officers of the regular army and 95,000 officers in the reserve corps have orders, directing them where to report for duty on May 1, the commencement of mobilization.

170,000 STRONG

The highly-mechanized regular army, 170,000 strong, and national guard troops numbering about 185,000 would be mobilized, theoretically, in 20 to 30 hours. Training nucleus for hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, of reserves would be the 90,000 reserve corps officers. Because of this large force contingent built up since the Great War, new soldiers could be trained much better and more quickly than in 1917.

In 1917 at the first registration of all men between 21 and 30 in the nation, 9,386,000 were listed for potential military duty. The first registration in a future war is expected to include men in the same age

LONDON, April 26.—Augustus E. John, one of Great Britain's highest paid portrait painters, decided Monday to resign from the Royal Academy in protest against the academy's rejection of Winston Churchill's picture of the author, T. S. Eliot.

Mr. John said the resignation was an "implicit act of protest against the academy's rejection of Churchill's picture of the author, T. S. Eliot."

Following dull days that had left citizens wondering where the sun had gone to, Old Sol burst out through the clouds Tuesday morning and boosted the temperature to 41 above by 9 a.m. On Monday the highest reading was 40 above, at 3 p.m., and during the night the mercury went down as far as 26 above, at 4 and 5 a.m.

Under the influence of bright sunshine and clearing skies, the forecast Tuesday morning was "fair and mild."

Temperatures were up on Monday's readings at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in the near north, the highest mark at that time being 33 above at Fair, while the low reading in the area was 24 above registered at Jindon Hope. Persons are in operation at Smith and Shovel, but the Taylor and Ferguson firms are not in operation.

There were no sub-zero readings in the far north early Tuesday, the closest to the line being Akavik with 6 below. Warmest of the readings at that time was 22 above at Dawson.

JOBLESS OFFER TO RAISE 1,000 MEN FOR SPAIN

OTTAWA, April 26.—Single unemployed men in Winnipeg, not desiring to remain idle while "unfortunate" Fascism hampers human progress, are being asked to mobilize 1,000 men for active service in the Spanish civil war if the Canadian government would aid the Spanish government, it was shown in a statement filed in the House of Commons Monday.

In reply to a question by Angus Macdonald (C.C.F., Vancouver East), the government failed to list of projects against the administration's action in placing an embargo on export of war materials to Spain. The Winnipeg offer was contained in the list.
